Committee on Customs Valuation

REPORT ON IMPROVEMENTS IN THE FUNCTIONING OF THE COMMITTEE ON CUSTOMS VALUATION

1 INTRODUCTION

1.1. This report has been prepared at the request of the Council for Trade in Goods (Council).¹ The purpose of this report is to update the Council on the discussions held by the Committee on Customs Valuation (Committee) and the improvements in the functioning of the Committee since MC12 (June 2022). This report follows on from the report on the current functioning of the Committee², which is included in the list of reports by the Chairpersons of the Council's subsidiary bodies³ and in the comparison matrix of the reports on the current functioning of the Council and its subsidiary bodies.⁴

2 PROCESS AND PROPOSALS

2.1. Following the report on the current functioning of the Committee, the Chair convened an informal meeting of the Committee on 30 January 2023 at which Members were invited to give their reactions and views regarding the functioning of the Committee and possible improvements and reforms.⁵

2.2. On 17 May 2023, the Committee Chair circulated a communication containing an indicative list of issues to guide Members' discussions on the improvements they would like to see in the functioning of the Committee. The Committee then held an exchange with Members at its formal meeting on 24 May 2023, where the Chair suggested that another informal meeting be held with Members to discuss these matters in greater detail.⁶

2.3. On 26 June 2023, the Committee Chair circulated a communication convening an informal meeting to continue the discussion on Committee reform matters.⁷ At his request, the Secretariat prepared a table listing possible improvements, the Committee's current practices, and the Chair's comments and suggestions.⁸ The informal meeting was held on 20 September 2023 and the table was updated after the meeting to reflect the current status of the various matters discussed in the context of the reform.⁹
